YOUR OWN OLVS / TV

We all have a favorite sanctuary – the sofa, a café, or your hidden spot.
But when you're comfortable with who you are, you become your own sanctuary.

Accent :30 sec.

We see a well-dressed guy, Mateo, get into a Lincoln Aviator and start driving down a Miami street at night.

MATEO (OFF):

I'm Mateo and my English isn't perfect. But don't blame me, I arrived just 15 years ago without knowing a drop of the language. And although they say that "an old parrot doesn't learn to speak," I did my best. I worked during the day and studied at night until I learned to communicate. At first, I felt embarrassed, but when I saw all that I achieved in this country, I turned my fear into my biggest strength.

Soy Mateo, y mi inglés no es perfecto.

No me culpen, llegué hace apenas 15 años sin saber una gota del idioma. Y aunque dicen que "loro viejo no aprende a hablar", yo hice mi mejor esfuerzo.

Trabajaba de día y estudiaba de noche hasta que aprendí a comunicarme. Al comienzo sentía pena, pero cuando vi todo lo que he logrado en este país

Convertí el miedo en mi mayor fortaleza.

Loud :30 sec.

We open on a lively Hispanic woman, Natalia, driving a Lincoln Aviator down the street at night.

Natalia (OFF): I'm Latina, and I'm loud.

Ever since I learned to speak, everyone has told me, "Shhhh... lower your voice." Society has taught us that being a loud woman isn't feminine, isn't lady-like. But I just can't help it, my vocal cords are strong, that's who I am. So, dear society, you better get used to ME.

Soy Latina, y hablo duro.

Desde que aprendí a hablar todo el mundo me decía "Shhhh... Baja la voz".

La Sociedad nos enseñó que hablar alto no es femenino, no es de señoritas.

Pero no puedo evitarlo, mis cuerdas vocales son fuertes, así soy yo.

Así que, querida Sociedad, es mejor que te acostumbres a MI.

I am louder than the average human being, and I'm ok with that.

Natalia (ON): Hablo más duro que el ser humano promedio, y estoy bien con eso.

We see Natalia raising the volume of the Premium Sound System of the Lincoln as she enjoys her favorite tropical playlist.

VO:

When you find yourself, you find your real sanctuary.

Cuando te encuentras a ti mismo, encuentras tu verdadero santuario.

Macho :30 sec.

We see a well-dressed man, Sebastian, get into a Lincoln Corsair and start driving in a city's financial district.

SEBASTIAN (OFF):

I'm Sebastian Martinez, and I'm both Mexican and gay.
My family didn't celebrate too much when I came out.
Latin culture is "macho," you know? Men don't cry and all that.
The good news is, my family and friends eventually came around.
In fact, they started to feel proud for all that I have achieved.

*Soy Sebastián Martínez, soy Mexicano y soy gay.
Mi familia no celebró demasiado cuando salí del closet.
La cultura Latina es "Macho", ¿sabes? Los hombres no lloran y esas cosas.
La Buena noticia es que mi familia y amigos lo aceptaron con el tiempo.
De hecho, comenzaron a sentirse orgullosos de lo que soy y lo que he logrado.*

SEBASTIAN (ON):

As long as you're clear about who you are, you'll be fine.
Mientras tengas claro quién eres, estarás bien.

He opens the Panoramic vista to the sky and drives off.
